

Chicago Attorney Jeffery M. Leving Prevents Local Police from Taking Little Girl Away from Dad

Chicago, Apr 20, 2019 - Fathers' Rights Attorney Jeffery M. Leving will explain how he prevented local police from taking a little girl, grieving the death of her mother, away from her dad, on the Dads Rights Legal Hour, Saturday, April 20th on Power 92.3 FM or www.power92chicago.com at 9:00 a.m. CDT.

Dad's little girl was living with him after the tragic death of her mother. However, according to court records, while dad was comforting his daughter, the girl's aunt was in court seeking guardianship to take her away from dad.

Court records show that the little girl's aunt told the Judge that the child was living with her and she had no way to contact dad - not true. Based on these statements, the Judge awarded guardianship of the girl to the aunt. Dad learned what happened only when local police arrived at his door and demanded that he immediately turn over his daughter to them. Though the police did not take his daughter that day, they would be back.

This frantic dad sought legal help from Dads Rights attorney Jeffery M. Leving to prevent the police from taking his grieving daughter away from him. Leving put together his legal team, led by attorneys James Nieland and Andrea Heckman, with investigative assistance from their Detective Wayne Halick.

The Leving legal team jumped into action. First, Leving filed for emergency relief to terminate the aunt's guardianship. Detective Halick then served the aunt with emergency court documents to block her from using the police to snatch his daughter. Next, Leving appeared in Court and argued that guardianship was wrongfully awarded to the aunt and that dad should be awarded custody. The Judge agreed and terminated the aunt's guardianship and awarded dad custody of his little girl.

Without the Leving legal team's work, this little girl was going to lose both of her parents. Now, she is safe with her loving dad and dad never has to worry about the police taking his daughter away again.
